CASE NUMBER: 1:17-CR-00446-001
DEFENDANT: IKAICA ERIK KANG

Judgment - Page 4 of 7

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: TWENTY(20) YEARS

This term consists of TWENTY(20) YEARS as to each count, with all such terms to run concurrently

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

That the defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement on supervision and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, but not more than 8 valid drug tests per month during the term of supervised release, unless there is a positive drug test, in which event the maximum shall increase to up to one valid drug test per day.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you are released, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when to report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by the probation officer. Your legitimate invocation of the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to a probation officer's question shall not be considered a violation of this condition.
- 5) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or who lives with you, you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time reasonable under the circumstances at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit, to the extent you are able or authorized to do so, the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that the officer observes in plain view.
- 7) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment, you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or if there are substantial changes to your job responsibilities, you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8) Unless you have received advance permission from the probation officer or the association is required by supervision conditions, you must not voluntarily and intentionally associate with any person you know is engaged in committing a federal, state, or local crime, not including traffic offenses, whether the crime is being committed in or outside of your presence. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921(a)(4), or dangerous weapon (that is, anything that was designed or was modified for the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person, such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to an organization or a person relating to your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, the probation officer may require, with the court's approval, that you notify that organization or person (or that person's parent, guardian, caretaker, or other individual responsible for the person's welfare) about the risk, and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the organization or person that you were directed to notify and confirm that you notified that organization or person about the risk.
- 13) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
2. You must participate in a mental health assessment, and any recommended treatment in a mental health program, and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program (such as provider, location, modality, duration and intensity).
3. You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or storage devices or media, or office to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. You must also submit to periodic unannounced examinations of your computer and computer accessories, as well as provide access to Internet service provider account records, as directed by the probation officer. You must warn other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
